Area Agency on Aging: The Guiding Light

By [Name]

The Area Agency on Aging (AAA) is a vital resource for seniors in the community. It provides a wide range of services, including meal delivery, transportation, and caregiver support. The AAA is committed to ensuring that every senior citizen has access to the care and resources they need to live independently and with dignity.

The AAA is a member of the National Network of Area Agencies on Aging (NNAAG), which is the largest national organization of public and private agencies that serve older people. The AAA is also a member of the Senior Center Association of America (SCAA), which is the largest national organization of senior centers.

The AAA is a non-profit organization that is funded by a combination of state and federal dollars, as well as private donations. The AAA is a proud member of the community and is committed to providing the highest quality of care and services to all seniors.
